TAKE HOME A PIECE OF NEW BEDFORD

Rated the 7th "Most Artistic" city in America by The Atlantic Monthly, New Bedford is home to UMass Dartmouth's College of Visual & Performing Arts, as well as a growing number of artists and artisans whose works are exhibited and sold locally, nationally and internationally.

Attracted by both the diversity and the quality of the arts here, collectors and visitors alike make frequent trips to New Bedford to shop at the many art galleries and artist studios offering an ever-changing variety of fine art and crafts.

Each time you pour your morning coffee into a mug thrown on a potter's wheel here, or wrap yourself in a quilted jacket stitched locally, or fasten the clasp on a necklace crafted by one of our artists, or admire the painting you bought here, you'll reflect back on your time spent in this historic city by the sea.

Collect an artful memory today.
